

Tid-bits from the administrator’s blotter at St. Elizabeth.

- Our friends, the pigeons in the bell tower, have been relocated and new netting is installed. The “family clutter” which ultimately clogged the drains and caused leaks in the tower is fixed. Costs: bird abatement $ 3,840. Plumber’s estimate $2,500.
- The industrial kitchen range in Cantwell Hall got a make-over last week: 6 filters were replaced and the dinosaur got good scrub down. Cost: $2,800.
- An ongoing problem: One of the vents that blows warm air from the boiler into Cantwell Hall was replaced (Cost: $3, 950); however, an electrical snafu has Pribuss Engineering scratching its head over why the power isn’t going to the blower. V3 Mechanical is calling in ASF Electrical for a consultation. The earliest they can come is May 8th. (Doesn’t somebody want to do a novena to St. Elizabeth!)
- Since the closing of the St Elizabeth School, all pertinent records and memorabilia have been stored in the rectory basement. Unfortunately some other critters have been attracted. Hantaviruses require extra protection in the rodent abatement, especially because the rectory employees also have to access church records stored in the basement. Cost $ 7,886. Work scheduled for the second week of May.
- Final payment on the rectory painting has been made for $6,041.
- Are you thinking about the Marian Workshop to be offered at the Marian Chapel of the Church on May 13th from Noon to 3 PM? Inform yourself on the “Five First Saturdays.” Find out why this could be the best End of Life insurance policy ever offered. Big dividends! Call the rectory to reserve your spot.
- Adult Catholics who are baptized and receive Holy Communion but have never been confirmed now have an opportunity for a 1) short two day preparation May 19th and 20th and 2) reception of the Sacrament of Confirmation at the Cathedral on June 4 @ 11AM. Candidates must present a copy of their baptismal certificate and the name of their sponsor when they register at the parish before May 18.

-- The parish wants to acknowledge the following who have so generously given of their time to the religious education of our children: Jeanne and Michael Walsh, Teresita Alano, Justine Alano, Erlinda Antonio, Leonor Daguman, Josefa Jasareno, Richard John, Gerri Jose, Eric Nacor, Elizabeth Pasco, Corazon Pilare, Rodney Titus, Laurrie Digneo. Kudos as well to Maria and Richard Padua as well as Rupert and Lourdes Ubaldo who have provided baptismal preparation for 30 years! Fr. James Garcia

Archdiocesan Appeal

“How are we doing?” The assessment assigned to St. Elizabeth parish in 2017 is $48,470. Thanks to our generous parishioners $17,942 has been pledged as of May 1st. Eight months remain for us to retire the balance of $30,528. As soon as the Archdiocese sends an updated list of parish donors, a mailing will go out to St. Elizabeth parishioners who may yet want to help us in this important effort. When Fr. Suan returns from his sabbatical in July, I would be happy to tell him that at least 50% of the total debt, i.e. $24,000 has been retired. Thanks, Fr. Garcia.

Something to talk about over coffee
 There were some religious groups in the 1960s who said that the Church must either change or die! “Change” for some groups meant abandoning core beliefs and mimicking the secular world. After half a century of experience, what do you think? Where are we? How does Catholicism “feel” to you now...as compared to thirty or forty years ago? Have we Catholics “blended in too much” to the larger US society? Have we in fact gotten lost in the bigger community? Do you believe the central affirmation of Christianity that Jesus lives anew having risen from the dead...and that he is the Son of God? Do you still believe that the Scriptures/the Bible has authority to guide our conduct (“You shall not commit adultery”... and “pray for those who persecute you”)? Do religious groups need to water down or accommodate their beliefs to the dominant secular culture to stay relevant in today’s society? ...Discuss among yourselves!

If you make your offertory donation by check, without using parishioner envelopes, it would be most helpful if you placed your parishioner/envelope # in the “memo” section of the check.
 This helps us input your donation to the offertory data system. We will not be responsible for donations not credited due to missing envelope numbers (or not having a Sunday collection envelope.)
