

Twenty-fourth Sunday in Ordinary Time
September 16, 2018

The Lord GOD is my help,
therefore I am not disgraced.
— Isaiah 50:7

LISTENING AND RESPONDING

There are three interwoven themes in today's readings: listening to God, faith vs. good works, and losing our life in order to find it. How are they related?

The Suffering Servant of Isaiah undergoes much distress and ridicule, but is able to bear it because he has listened to the promptings of God day after day. The psalm tells us that God listens, too. God hears our prayers for help and is always ready to save us. As our faith deepens, so does our desire to do the works of justice and charity that build up the reign of God. God directs our actions in ways we often cannot see, and we don't always see the results. We are called upon in faith to trust that what we do is enough, and that willingness to listen to God's promptings will lead us in the right way.

A Wonderful Service and Volunteer Opportunity at St. Mary's Cathedral

Catholic Charities is seeking a San Francisco parish group to host a Handicapped luncheon at St. Mary's Cathedral one Saturday a year from noon to 2:00 PM. Parish volunteers would provide the lunch at the Cathedral, and host the guests by welcoming and visiting with them. Catholic Charities helps manage the Handicapped program, which provides seniors and adults with disabilities the opportunity to gather once a month at St. Mary's Cathedral to socialize over lunch, celebrate Mass as an option, and enjoy each other's company. Sometimes entertainment and/or a speaker are provided. The San Francisco Fire Department currently provides escort assistance for the transportation vehicle to and from the lunch. We are hoping to get a total of 11 different parishes to each host one luncheon at the Cathedral during the year. If you are interested, please contact Diane Prell by email at: DPrell@CatholicCharitiesSF.org or by calling 415-452-3500.
